Roger Shaffer, Managing Director, Correspondent Clearing at INTL FCStone Financial Inc., commented on today's news, "At INTL FCStone Financial, we leverage our knowledge and expertise serving the middle-market in order to provide our correspondents with information on topics critical to their businesses. We believe the Global Correspondent Outlook Conference will be an excellent forum to deliver this information. We look forward to lively and collaborative discussion during the event, and to furthering the success of our correspondents through education."

INTL FCStone Financial utilizes next generation technology, a personal approach to operational support, and a strong infrastructure to empower introducing broker-dealers and RIAs to more effectively serve the trading and investment needs of their customers. The Company uniquely serves the middle-market by providing institutional and retail capabilities through a single, proprietary platform. INTL FCStone Financial is combining its institutional and international capabilities with the clearing and custody platform acquired by its parent company in the acquisition of Stene, Agee & Leach, Inc., in July 2016.

Steven zum Tobel, Managing Director, Correspondent Clearing at INTL FCStone Financial Inc., concluded, "We are excited to unveil to our correspondent clients those enhancements to our clearing platform that we have implemented since the acquisition of Sterne, Agee & Leach, and to highlight future initiatives that will further augment our industry-leading offerings for the middle-market. The conference will not only provide a unique opportunity to display the breadth and depth of the products and services of our affiliates, but also to showcase our deep appreciation for our correspondents."
